Our 0800 Freephone Number Switchboard is the Ultimate tool for a Dynamic Business. The Switchboard allows callers to be routed to either different Departments, Locations, or even Personnel on the move. You can set up the departments to divert to different Landlines or Mobiles, or if you are running a very small business to the same numbers. When the call is diverted to a department, the person receiving the call immediately knows that the call is designated for the Department stated BEFORE they connect to the caller. This allows you to Screen calls before connecting them. Each Department can have its own Smart Hunt Group, and Voicemail. Departments can be set up to work entirely differently to others. Information lines with Recorded information such as New Products, or Your Address, or your website address can be setup as supplementary options.

You should seriously consider the 0800 Freephone Switchboard numbers featured below if you want A Truly Professional Image.
